We need your essays to also have your name, physical address, phone number and email address so we can contact you if your essay is selected by our judges. You can also stop into our store for an official entry form, it’s setup to help you complete the process. By the way, our judges are objective people in the community.”*

The Geeks at Work & Computer Tamers will accept entries, either via USPS mail, email, or hand delivered in person, at the Geeks at Work & Computer Tamers’ service center address of 178 Southgate Drive, Suite 13, Boone, North Carolina 28607. Of course, the Geeks and Tamers will only allow one entry per individual and the decision of the judges will be final.
